THAT VERY LITTLE BABY.

THE CRANK AND THE LITTLE ONES.

What a Western Editor Has to Say on the Subject.

[From the Milwaukee Sun.]

The following is going the rounds, written by an editor who thinks he is smart, very likely: "A baby can wear out a dollar pair of shoes in twenty-four hours. It can keep its father busy advertising in the newspaper for a week. It can occupy both sides of the largest sized bed manufactured simultaneously. It can make the author of its being's wish to kick its father out of the house and not be feeling at all well. It can crowd to suffocation the smoking car of a railroad train with indignant passengers between two stations. It can cause its father to be insulted by every second-class boarding house keeper in the city who 'never takes children.' It can make an old bachelor in the room adjoining its nursery, who is a confirmed bachelor, to leave the house and come home and seek the companionship of a locomotive blowing off steam."

It is cowardly to abuse a person who cannot talk back, and the man who thus abuses the baby, a poor little thing that is not responsible for coming to earth to annoy fools, is fit for treason, or jumping on a bomb, or any other thing that will get him out of the world.

Any person with a soul, unless there was something the matter with it, for which a grown person was responsible. It is a baby can wear out a pair of shoes in twenty-four hours, but if the proprietor of the baby does not like to stand the expense he can buy cheaper shoes, and if he does not like to stand the expense he can buy cheaper shoes, and if he does not like to stand the expense he can buy cheaper shoes.

THE CHANGE OF TIME.
